The diagram illustrates a tournament bracket starting from 64 participants at the bottom and progressing upwards through several rounds. Each round is represented by a set of brackets connecting players to their opponents, with scores or identifiers in circles indicating specific stages or results.

- Round 1 (Bottom): Individual player names and their countries are listed, such as "2. Pierre DAVID, FRA", "50. Dax BIESBROUCK, NED", etc.
- Intermediate Rounds: Brackets show pairings and outcomes. For example, in one branch, DAVID and BIESBROUCK are paired, leading to a result of 41. Another branch shows NUORTEVA and DOCQUIER leading to 42.
- Final Progression: The bracket continues to show how winners advance. Notable names include VERHAGEN, LHOMME, and WESTERKAMP, who appear in later stages of the competition.
- Final Outcome: At the top right, the final result is shown as LHOMME winning with a score of 74.
